Sale of Holiday Homes

Where a sale is required the Company shall require to be satisfied that the home is in sound condition. The Company, therefore, (at the Sellers expense) may require a survey to be undertaken and to be satisfied that it is sound and of saleable condition before agreeing to a transfer of that agreement. Consultation with the Company is advised to ensure the optimum resale price. No transfer of agreement is permitted without the written authorisation of the Company. All homes sold on the Park must be administered through the Company and payment effected through the Company. The commission will be at 15% plus VAT of the agreed sale price and will be deducted from the sale proceeds with the remainder (less any outstanding monies due to the Company) forwarded to the Vendor after completion. Transfer or removal of personal possessions is the responsibility of the Holiday Home Owner.

The Holiday Home Owner is responsible for all viewings, demonstrations and financial negotiation with prospective purchases and arrangements with the Company for assignment/transfer of the agreement. Holiday Home Owners not in possession of an agreement do not have any right to resell their home on the park unless specific written agreement is given by the Company. In order for the holiday home to be sold on the park it must not exceed 8 years old for static caravans and 16 years old for twin units (unless the written consent of the Company is obtained).

The Holiday Home Owner has no rights to exchange his holiday home on site without the express written agreement of the Company.

Agency Sale

The Company will act as sales agent on behalf of the Holiday Home Owner if instructed. This service includes advertising and marketing, inclusion within the Company's sales list for circulation to all prospects, demonstration of the homes, arranging for finance if required, securing payment, handing over the home and assigning the agreement. Upon completion financially, the proceeds will be immediately forwarded to the vendor, less commission and an agency fee (the charge for this is an additional 5% plus VAT of the attained price: minimum £300.00).

In any sale the Company can give no guarantee as to the condition of the unit to the new purchaser. All such responsibility remains that of the vendor.
